

Bankruptcy Law

The prospect of declaring bankruptcy is a daunting one, and something you shouldn't have to face alone. Whether you're looking at Chapter 7, Chapter 11, or Chapter 13 bankruptcy, the attorneys at The Law Offices of Frank D. Granato can help you during this stressful time in your life.

At The Law Offices of Frank D. Granato, we know that while every bankruptcy proceeding is unique, most people feel intimidated when filing. The paperwork involved in bankruptcy cases can be quite confusing, and, more often than not, your creditors will have teams of lawyers behind them.

Bankruptcy laws help people who can no longer pay their creditors, and help them get a fresh start by liquidating assets to pay their debts, or by creating a repayment plan. Bankruptcy laws also protect troubled businesses and provide for orderly distributions to business creditors through liquidation or reorganization.

Our objective is to make the bankruptcy process as simple and painless as possible for our clients.

Depending on how far you are into the process, our bankruptcy attorneys may be able to:

- Help you understand eligibility requirements and the different types of bankruptcy
- File your petition with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court
- Negotiate with your creditors at your 341 Meeting
- Argue on your behalf in bankruptcy court, if necessary
- Help you to regain control of your finances and get a fresh start

When you're having financial problems, time is of the utmost importance. Acting quickly and hiring an attorney when you miss credit card payments or when your business starts failing is the first step in gaining control over your finances.
